

I am a cross country truck driver who finds the information provided by X M Radio on road and weather conditions very helpful. Information that I am unable to get on local stations in my truck by not knowing any of the stations to tune to.1